Dear Mr. Weisberg.
Some time ago I phoned you regarding the Lee Harvey Oswald identification. At the time you thought you might know a writer who would be interested but thought locating him could be difficult. Have you made contact? And of course if any thing should come of this situation you would receive a percentage Also I suspect your photograph are clearer than mine.

Incidentally I forgot to ask that you keep the info.
regarding the scar, confidential,
May I hear from you
in the near future.

Sincerely.
